

NASC Frequently Asked Questions

How will my student get to the NASC Conference?

CADA/CASL will book each delegate's flight to the NASC Conference, the fee for the flight is covered in your registration price. Depending on your student's location, will determine where they fly out from. Your student will meet at the airport with one of the supervising adults that will be chaperoning the delegates throughout the NASC Conference. They will all fly together to the conference and back. Each student will be responsible for getting themselves to the selected airport.

Will my student have his/her own hotel room, or will they be sharing?

All students will be sharing a room with other California delegates that will be attending the event. Students will not be sharing a room with adults, and students are not allowed to be in a hotel room of any member of the opposite sex.

What does my registration include?

Your registration will include your air transportation, ground transportation when we arrive to the conference location, your NASC registration, all meals, and housing.

Will there be additional costs involved once my student gets to the conference?

Almost everything is included in your conference registration fees: hotel, transportation, meals and registration are all included. If students want to purchase souvenirs, snacks or anything additional they will need to bring some extra spending money.

What will my student be doing while at the NASC Conference?

Your student will have to opportunity to network with student leaders throughout the nation, they will hear from keynote speakers, attend small group workshops, attend training sessions, and become motivated and inspired with new ideas to take back with them.
