

CO-CURRICULAR CLUBS

ACADEMIC DECATHLON-

A group of nine students who compete against other teams around Kern County in interviews, speeches, grueling tests, and the game show style Super Quiz.

AVID

Advancement Via Individual Determination is designed to increase student learning and performance. The main goal is to prepare high school students for college. The club invites students from various academic levels to work on critical thinking, team work, and study skills.

CSF

The California Scholarship Federation is an honor society and state program that rewards students who do exceptionally well in academics. Students receive scholarships for college and in addition, college resumes that are very appealing to admissions directors.

DRAMA CLUB

If you want to act or work backstage, if you want to write or direct, if you want to make a difference - JOIN THE DRAMA CLUB. We perform Shakespeare as well as original plays. We go to festivals and plays, and allow our imaginations to work overtime to create new worlds for our audiences to experience.

INTEREST & HOBBY CLUBS

ART CLUB

Allow yourself to imagine...Art is for those who live it, do it, breathe it, feel it, and enjoy it! The Art Club works harder than ever to raise money for their various activities & competitions.

BIBLE CLUB

Our goal is to have fellowship with other Bible-believing students on campus, learn how we can better live our lives to please God and witness to our friends, and to encourage each other to be bold and firm in our faith both on and off campus.

CHESS CLUB

If you like Chess or just want to learn to play Chess then we are here for you! We meet twice a week to go over strategies for the game, and overall want to help you intellectual advancement. Chess competitions are held where we then display our stuff!

BOOK CLUB

This growing club advised by librarian Mrs. Sanchez helps students find books that interest them. Sometimes members read the same book and then discuss it as a group. Other times the members pick their own individual books to read and then share their story. So, if you like reading come and join us!!!
