

CADA 47th Annual State Conference
Grand Sierra Resort and Casino • Reno, NV
March 3-6, 2010

Spirit of New Orleans

Attend the CADA Convention, you can't afford not to.

- ❖ A positive school climate is associated with higher grades, engagement, attendance, expectations and aspirations, a sense of scholastic competence, fewer school suspensions, and on-time progression through grades, higher self-esteem and self-concept, less anxiety, depression and loneliness, less substance abuse, and a safer school.
- ❖ Strong student activities programs directly affect school culture and climate.
- ❖ Strong student activities programs help to create safer schools.
- ❖ CADA helps build strong activities programs.
- ❖ The 2010 CADA Convention features a focus on SAFE SCHOOLS and POSITIVE SCHOOL CLIMATE and CULTURE
- ❖ You can't afford to miss it!

Direct cost for one suspension

- ❖ ADA @ $30.00 a day for three days.....$90
- ❖ Administrative Costs.....$200
 - (fact gathering, witness interviews, calls, meetings, data entry, record keeping, filing...4 hours at $50.00 an hour)
- ❖ Total.....$290

Associated costs per suspension

- ❖ Lost time on task
- ❖ Lost student learning
- ❖ Anxiety
- ❖ Sleep problems
- ❖ Possible additional incidents
- ❖ Staff frustration

Cost of CADA Convention

Registration: $275.00

(Non-California residents get the Member rate for the conference!)

Hotel Room (3 nights at $85/night): $255

Food (Wed-lunch, Thurs-breakfast/lunch, Fri-breakfast/lunch): $56.00

Flight or gas (flight from LAX to Reno): $193.80

Substitute cost: $250

Total cost of convention: $1029.80

If attendance at the CADA Convention Safe Schools Seminar reduces suspensions by just 25 per year, the cost of attending the convention would be more than justified.

Safe schools program potential saving to the school=minimum 25 prevented suspensions or $7,250

Potential (modest estimate) savings: $6,220.20
