

F-5: Jitters Poetry Slam-Coffee Shop-Cindy Bader

Jitters is an early-ending week-night coffee shop set up in the cafeteria where students come to drink coffee (jitters is a misnomer, we serve decaf), talk, study, listen to friends play music, recite poetry, and enjoy the company of students they may not normally hang out with.

Jitters Checklist

- Facility request, secure facility—food approval!
- Bulletin notice for performers
- Make form for performers to fill out spelling out appropriate performance along with their needs (mic, etc)
- Deadline on form—create a “play bill” for Jitters
- Posters and bulletins featuring the “play bill”
- Get tables, decorations, food, music
- Someone to run sound system
- Bulletin to advertise Jitters
- Teachers to supervise (at least 2)
- Set-up right after school, clean-up that night ENTIRE council should do both
- Thank you notes and small gift for supervising teachers
- Evaluate