My Personal Soundtrack: Volume 2

Do you ever notice how when you are happy or sad and you turn on the radio every song seems to fit what you are going through? Do you ever notice how sometimes different songs pop into your head at the weirdest times? Are there certain songs that no matter how many times you listen to them, you never get tired of them? Are there any songs that have inspired you to do something that you didn’t think you could? Made you believe in yourself as a leader? Are there songs that pump you up and make you feel like you could accomplish anything? If you answered “YES” to any of these questions, then you understand how powerful songs can be.

Here is your assignment …
Imagine that your role as a leader is being made into a movie. Your job is to put together a collection of songs which reflect leadership themes. These should be songs which help to spread the messages of leadership that we have discussed this year (including inclusion, cooperation, being friendly, caring about others, etc.) I want you to create the soundtrack to that movie. You must come up with 10 songs that will become your personal leadership soundtrack. Put some thought into this. Remember they should be songs which have to do with your role as a leader. Remember … this is not a collection of your favorite songs at the moment … it should be a collection of songs that represent leadership messages!

When you have chosen your songs, take some time to design a CD cover for your soundtrack (staple it to this sheet, or include it in your cd (see below) which you tape to the back of this paper!) The cover must have a current photo of yourself on it.

For extra credit (if you have access to a computer) burn a copy of these songs for me to listen to. I DO NOT advocate downloading illegal copies of songs.
