

Leadership Final

Mt. Rushmore

You will be working with a partner from your current council. (You choose) Only teams of TWO will be allowed. You will give a TWO-minute presentation to the class and prepare a written report. Both people must participate equally in the presentation. You may use commissioner or council days to create your PLAN of ATTACK, however your regular work must not suffer. Some of this will have to be done on your own time.

There is to be a person added to Mt. Rushmore and you get to choose the person you feel would be worthy of this honor.

The leader must be a public leader, past or present.

You will give a TWO-minute speech on your choice. Your speech must include an explanation of the qualities that inspired your selection and a visual representation of the monument with your choice added.

Each team will turn in ONE written report to include:

- A visual representation of the NEW Mt. Rushmore

- A typed report summarizing the following for the person chosen:

 - His/her background (family life, education)

 - His/her accomplishments & leadership positions

 - Leadership qualities you admire

- A bibliography

There is no page number requirement. Your report can be as short as one page if you are able to cover the required information.

Evaluation will be done as follows:

25% Written report

25% Oral report

- Visual Aid

- Obviously prepared

- Presentation style (eye contact, volume, etc.)

- Audience grade will be considered for points in this %

25% Meeting deadlines for report
