Disclaimer....

- I do not claim to be an expert
- This is about gathering ideas and creative ways to appreciate our leaders
- I understand I am awkward looking
- I am just like you, an underpaid activities director trying to do cool stuff for my kids.

Where did this all come from?

- My Story
- The kids are pretty much just like us if you really think about it.

We all know these leadership terms!

- Staff Appreciation
  - Faculty Appreciation
  - Admin Appreciation
  - Student Appreciation
- What do these look like at your school?
  - How do these these people feel when you appreciate them?

Quote from the corporate world

- “Most employees don’t quit their jobs, they quit their boss.”
- How does that apply to your life as a teacher? Put yourself in the shoes of your students.

However

- What can we do to add the term Student Council appreciation to the landscape?
- How often to we appreciate the kids who lead all the events that appreciate others?

The Psychology of Student Leaders

- Student leaders are different than the rest of our student population.
- What makes them tick?
- The color test, what are the values that they place emphasis on.

The Color Test

- Great way to see what your student council values.
- This will help you to figure out what you can do to make sure they feel loved and appreciated.

Fighting Senioritis???

- There are ways to combat it, stay tuned!

So let's talk about appreciating our leaders!
