

My World

I want to learn more about the leader in you. We will be working together for the entire year, and I want to get to know you. I want you to share your world with me. This assignment will be an opportunity for me to learn more about you and what you offer to our world. Please take your world home and decorate it with things that represent the items below.

Directions:

Trace and cut out your world.

Trace your hand somewhere on your world and fill in each finger with 5 adjectives that describe you. (Hint: Ask your family/friends to describe you, if you are having trouble.)

Put a picture of yourself in the palm of the hand.

Include your name on your world, make sure it stands out.

Include the most important thing I should know about you.

Include something that you are passionate about.

Include your favorite quote.

Include an idea for impacting the students at our school as a leader.

Include an interesting or unique experience, that helped you learn more about yourself

Draw or glue pictures/symbols of the following:

Hobbies, interests, skills, and talents.

Favorite things.

Be creative! You may use magazines, pictures, downloaded images, or other materials from home. Your world will be displayed in the classroom, so please make it the best representation of your work! Neatness counts! Your grade will be based on how well you follow directions & how well you fulfill the requirements of the assignment. I'm looking forward to seeing your world, learning more about you, and especially working with the leader in you!

Leadership Collage

Directions:

Using the questions below as a guide, construct a collage that best represents the person that you have been assigned. You may get help from one other person in Leadership, but no one else may help you. Please try to keep your person a secret! This makes this "gift" even more exceptional.

Collage Requirements:

Medium sized cardstock paper (18 "x 11" minimum)

Be colorful

Be neat

Be in good taste.

You may draw, use pictures from magazines, scrapbook materials, the Internet, photos, or other items to decorate your collage. Use your knowledge of poster making & presentation to create this unique collage.

Oral presentation: 2 minutes maximum

Be prepared

Practice what you are going to say

Focus on making your collage recipient feel appreciated

Example questions: Use these ideas to help create a collage that best represents your assigned person.

If you could take this person out, where would you take them? Why?

What is the funniest thing this person did in Leadership class?

What three words describe your person?

When you think of this person, what do you think of first?

What did you learn about this person that you did not know at the beginning of the school year?

What animal is this person most like? Why?

In ten years this person will become a(n) _____. Why?

What will this person look like in ten years?

How has this person influenced you?

What celebrity is this person most like?

What Disney character is this person most like? Why?

What type of music, sports, school subjects, styles best describe this person?

Include anything else you would like to share about this person.

You will create a collage for _____.
