Thank you cards especially for participation in rallies, chaperoning dances, use of teacher supplies, helping with fundraisers, etc.
Dear Mrs. Bunger,

Thank you very much for volunteering your time to help scoop ice cream at Baskin Robbins fundraiser. Without your kindness, this fundraiser wouldn’t be as great as it went.

Once again, we appreciate for your time and hope you had a great time there!

Also, thank you for being an amazing leadership teacher!

WE LOVE YOU ❤️

Recognition on Walls or Doors

“New Staff Board”: pictures with bio to introduce the teacher to the school

Doors/Walls of Celebration: students decorate the teacher’s doors or classroom walls to highlight that teacher.
You Rock Rock!

You rock rock for teachers: have a student decorate a rock and give to teachers for specific things they have done.
Small token of appreciation

“You are the highlight of our school!”
Teacher Appreciation Day or Spirit Week Ideas

*Wear your favorite teacher’s colors

*Bring a special note or poem for your favorite teacher

*Bring a teacher a flower

*Bring your teacher a school supply

*Bring your teacher their favorite candy bar
Lunch time activity: Guess The Teacher

Ask staff to submit a baby picture, and then students have a chart to complete during a lunch time activity where they have to guess which teacher is the baby picture of. Participants with the most guessed correctly win a prize.
Teacher Helpers

*Students are assigned a teacher that they help for certain amount of hours each quarter.
