Believe In You Empowerment Rights
Elevating student experience with unshakable optimism.

Kevin Atlas & Aaron Hart
www.BelieveInYou.com
Today’s objectives…

• To cultivate trust.
• To inspire optimism.
• To encourage consistency.
BELIEVE IN YOU.COM

EMPOWERING STUDENTS TO CHANGE THEIR WORLD

BELIEVE IN YOU
A Trauma-Informed Perspective
Our social and emotional learning resources purposefully work to help teachers establish a culture of safety, empowerment, and healing.
The Foundation of Trauma Informed Teaching:

The foundation of safety is

TRUST.
The Foundation of Trauma Informed Teaching:

The foundation of empowerment is OPTIMISM.
The Foundation of Trauma Informed Teaching:

The foundation of healing is

CONSISTENCY.
Believe In You Empowerment Rights

All students have the right to...

- Live optimistically. (self-awareness)
- Act on positive motivation. (self-management)
- Live with respect for self & others. (social awareness)
- Communicate with a unique voice. (relationship skills)
- Make choices about how to share their greatness. (responsible decision-making)
BELIEVE IN YOU.COM

EMPOWERING STUDENTS TO CHANGE THEIR WORLD

BELIEVE IN YOU